

ADAMS SUCCUMBS TO CHAS. ELSTON

The first round of the tennis tournament, played yesterday, resulted as follows:

Dr. H. Ricknell (B) defeated S. G. Wilder (P), 6-2, 6-3.
J. T. Irvine (P) defeated J. Greenwell (B), 6-0, 6-2.
A. R. Cunha (B) defeated D. M. Ross (P), 7-5, 6-3. This was a good game and closer than the score would indicate. Cunha's headwork was mainly responsible for his victory.
W. P. Roth (P) defeated H. C. Carter (B), 6-2, 6-3.
A. M. Nowell (B) defeated P. M. Lamadele (P), 6-2, 7-5.
W. F. Dillingham (P) defeated C. G. Hoskus (B), 6-2, 6-2.
L. C. King (B) defeated I. S. Dillingham (P), 6-6, 9-7.
C. A. Elston (B) defeated E. R. Adams (P), 6-3, 2-6, 6-2. This was the best game of the afternoon, both players playing admirably. Up to a certain stage in the third set it was anyone's game; then, however, it became evident that Elston carried too many guns for Adams, despite the gallant efforts of the latter to turn the tide of defeat. This afternoon's games will be as follows:
Beretania courts—
At 4 p. m.—A. M. Nowell (B) vs. W. F. Dillingham (P).
At 5 p. m.—Dr. H. Ricknell (B) vs. J. T. Irvine (P).
Pacific courts—
At 4 p. m.—A. R. Cunha (B) vs. W. P. Roth (P).
At 5 p. m.—L. C. King (B) vs. C. A. Elston (P).

LAND COMMISSIONER BACK.

E. S. Boyd Returns in Sonoma From Mainland.

E. S. Boyd, Land Commissioner, came back from Washington yesterday, arriving by the Sonoma. He was at his office during the day to greet the force there and expressed himself glad to return to his native soil. He said that the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico is aware now that there are certain features of the American land law not wholly suitable to conditions here, and for this reason a commission is likely to be sent this summer to investigate them. The committee does not want to take any action until the commission reports. Mr. Boyd states that the ditch bill is also in a satisfactory shape at present and that Congress may pass a general law on the subject, with the power to act left in the hands of the Territorial officials. He also believes that the fire claims request will have a thorough hearing, with chances in favor of relief being granted.

Orpheum.

The Elletts presented "The Strange Story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" to a good sized house, in spite of the strong counter attraction. The play is dramatized from the novel of the same name by Robert L. Stevenson.

The piece, although a little draggy at intervals, was on the whole a very interesting performance. Richard Scott gave a most masterly performance of the dual role. The balance of the cast came up to the requirements of the author. The sombre portions of the drama were enlivened with new specialties by Ada Lucas, Baby Lillies, Little Evelyn and True Boardman, who were warmly received. The same bill goes on tonight and for tomorrow matinee and evening the laughable comedy, "A Nutmeg Match," will be given.

Cricket Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Cricket Club will be held this evening at the Hawaiian Hotel, commencing at 8 o'clock. There is a movement on foot to elect officers this year who will play cricket for sake of the sport if furnishes and not merely because they are the proper thing to do when there's a British gunboat in port, don't you know. There is a very general opinion among local wielders of the willow that, judged by its record of the last two years, the Honolulu Cricket Club would be much more aptly named the "Honolulu Tiffin Club."

Whoa!

Last night Charles Crane, while standing outside his house on Kewale street, noticed the horse and wagon of Wm. High, washer of clothes, coming toward him at a dead run, no one being at the helm. Mr. Crane stepped into the middle of the road and shouted and the horse came to a standstill. Wm. High, who afterwards arrived on the scene, and the question of salvage having been amicably adjusted, proceeded to Kakaako with a tight hand on the reins.

He will go on as a dresser for one of London's surgeons on May 18. All his examinations, with the exception of the finale, have been successfully passed, which will cut down his course to eighteen months or one-half the stipulated time.

L. E. Thayer of Fort Wayne, Ind., arrived yesterday in the Sonoma to make a two weeks' visit with his son, Attorney Wade Warren Thayer. Mrs. L. E. Thayer has been in Honolulu for several months, and will return to the coast with her husband on the Alameda leaving May 21. Attorney Thayer also accompanies them.

Armstrong Smith, well known to Honoluluans, won the anatomy prize at the college, Middlesex, and is to be appointed assistant demonstrator in physiology. He will go on as a dresser for one of London's surgeons on May 18. All his examinations, with the exception of the finale, have been successfully passed, which will cut down his course to eighteen months or one-half the stipulated time.

POOR SPORT.

Crippled and Volunteer Teams Disappoint Public at Rope.

The tug-of-war contests last night were not of a nature calculated to inspire riotous enthusiasm. In the first place the All-Americans again failed to put in an appearance and a team of uncapitulated volunteers were pulled over in 39½ by the Lumber Yards team.

The Portuguese team next appeared, or rather part of the original team, the vacancies being filled by substitutes. Captain Machado did not put in an appearance. The Portuguese in their disabled condition were easy game for the sturdy Kani Ke Aue, who disposed of them in 12 minutes, 35 seconds.

The native teams in the tournament are setting an excellent example for stability and faithfulness to contract, not one of their members having so far been found wanting when time was called.

The managers of the concern may be doing their best to make the competition a success, but it certainly is questionable policy, to say the least, to keep on billing a team to appear, which has from the very first showed an utter disinclination to keep faith with the public and the promoters of the tournament.

A Soft Impeschment.

In an article on ladies who might be benefited by a change of government in Hawaii, the New York Town Topics says:

There is no Mrs. Little Yet, but there is a rumor that if Judge Little ever becomes Governor of Hawaii Miss Annie Rose, popularly known as "The Rose of Hilo," may become the Governor's bride. Miss Annie Rose was sent from the Hawaiian Islands to be Queen of the Kansas Carnival. It was her first trip from her native land. Adulation and conquest awaited her. She was written up as a beauty, and a new fashion in millinery was named after her. But she returned to Hilo unspoiled. If ever she becomes a Governor's wife it is safe to wager her pretty head will remain level.

A lady's gold watch attached to a tortoise shell chain has been lost. Reward if returned to this office.

Cattlemen and sheepmen are quarreling in Oregon over grazing land.

Gold has been reported discovered at Cape Scott, Vancouver's Island.

Hawaii's Greatest Exhibit

At every World's Fair manufacturers of prepared foods swarmed with their chemically and secretly compounded foods, claiming for their product everything in sight. It is next to impossible to combine a lot of ingredients and expect to produce a food that will nourish every part of the human system, for both old and infants. We have right in our store every ingredient that analysis has found in beef, but could you purchase these chemicals and produce a beef at all?

But Hawaii produces a food in the taro that is a marvel to physicians. From this we prepare our a food wholly cooked ready for immediate use, keeps in any climate, and always does what is claimed for it. This cannot be said of other prepared foods. You would be astonished, perhaps, to know how many babies in this city had been raised on

TAROENA

TAROENA

It has been frequently the last resort for a dying child. Many have told us that after trying all other foods was the only one that agreed with their child. You may think we are putting it pretty strong, but we are telling you facts. We have letters from nearly every section of the mainland testifying to its value as a food for infants, or dyspeptics.

TAROENA

TAROENA

possesses real merit and if you are seeking a prepared food try it. It does all that we claim for it and a good deal more.
